HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, October 10, 1823.

Extraordinary Rich Wheels.

The greatest improvement in the wheels of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY has so far attended the drawings of this splendid scheme, and a most UNEXAMPLED PROSPECT now awaits adventurers. Not a single great capital is yet drawn, although the Lottery is now one HALF OVER! No delay whatever ought to be made in sending on orders either for whole tickets or shares. Ten drawings only remain to complete the whole, and during which time, there must be distributed the following magnificent list of prizes, viz:

- 1 Capital of 100,000 Dollars.
- 1 Capital of 20,000 Dollars.
- 2 Capitals of 10,000 Dollars.
- 2 Capitals of 5,000 Dollars.
- 12 Capitals of 1,000 Dollars.

&c. &c.—Present prices of Tickets and Shares, viz:

WHOLE Ticket $15 may produce 100,000 dolls.
HALF - - - 7 50 may produce 50,000 dolls.
QUARTERS - - 3 75 may produce 25,000 dolls.
EIGHTH - - - 1 87 may produce 12,500 dolls.

Orders from any part of the United States, by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the cash, or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention, as if on personal application, addressed to J. I. COHEN, Jr.—Baltimore.

Washington Monument Lottery.

Due notice will be given of the next drawing of this patriotic scheme. The capital prizes of 20,000 dollars:—10,000—10,000—&c. &c. still undrawn. Tickets yet remain at Ten Dollars, and Shares in proportion.

Steam Packet New York, stranded.—We learn by the Norfolk Herald and the Beacon, received here by the steam boat, which left Norfolk yesterday morning, that this vessel left New York last Thursday, for Norfolk, and arrived off the Capes on Saturday forenoon, but owing to the extreme haziness of the weather was unable to discover land, and in standing in, unfortunately struck upon a sand bar that makes out from Cape Henry, about a half a mile to the southward of the light-house, and although close in with the main land, such was the density of the atmosphere, the shore could not be perceived. She struck about eleven o'clock in the morning. There were about thirty passengers on board the New York who are all safe. This truly unpleasant intelligence was received on Tuesday afternoon in a letter from Capt. Churchyard, to the Agent here; no other particulars. The person who brought the letter, states, that the New York had not bilged, but that her situation was rather a critical one. She has a large quantity of goods on board for Norfolk.

Since writing the above, the following passengers, viz. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes, of Elizabeth city, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, have come up from the packet, and brought the letters and a list of the consignees. The goods have all been landed in good order. The rest of the passengers are on their way up.

English Crops.—The N. Y. Daily Advertiser says:—We have carefully examined our files of English papers to the 27th of August, and find that the weather up to that time continued generally good. A part of the wheat crop had been gathered, and was of fair average quality. Our Liverpool advices of the 25th, state that in consequence of the favourable change of the weather which has taken place within the last few days, the Corn Market had become extremely dull, and the few sales effected in wheat has been at a reduction of 3d. per bushel. There had been a fair demand for flour in bond for shipment, and some parcels of flour had been sold at 20 to 21 shillings per barrel.

Extract of a letter, dated Dublin, August 14.

"We will have a very late harvest, and if the weather does not take up soon, we must have a very unproductive one, and though we had only three weeks of warm sun, (say from 1st to the 21st of June) the appearance, at present, is pretty good, though far back. The thermometer stands at night at 45 to 50, the day time 50 to 60, which heat is not sufficient to ripen the fruits of the earth."

DEATH OF THE POPE.

Pope Pius the 7th, after having received the sacrament of Extreme Unction, from the hands of Cardinal Bertozzoli, lost the power of speech, and expired at half past 6 o'clock, on the morning of the 19th of August; his last words, in refusing to take a refreshing beverage offered to him, were:—"I have now no other care on this earth, but that of my soul, and to render unto God, an account of my long life."

A letter from Rome, says—"According to immemorial custom, the body of the Pope will lie in state for nine days, in an illuminated chapel. The burial will take place on the 9th day, and on the tenth the sacred college will assemble in conclave. Arrangements are making for the first formal ties observed at the election of a Pope. The foreign cardinals will be admitted to the conclave on the first or second day after their arrival at Rome.—Cardinal Pecca, Camerlingo of the Roman Catholic religion, has taken the temporal government of the States of the Church."

By the schooner Col. Ramsay, Smith, arrived here last evening in 22 days from St. Jago de Cuba, we learn that General Morales and his army were still at that place, and that a contribution had been levied upon the inhabitants for their support. In the Col. Ramsay came passengers P. S. Pazotte, Esq. and daughter, and two others. Mr. P. it is added, has brought with him all the papers and documents relating to the claims of the underwriters and others in the late Florida treaty. It is understood that he will proceed immediately to Washington.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.

The U. S. schooner Shark, Lieut. Comdt. Stevens, fired a salute at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, which was answered by the Revenue Cutter Active, Capt. Cahoone, when she immediately got under weigh and proceeded to sea. Commodore Rogers, and Surgeons Harris, Washington and Hoffman, have gone out as passengers. She is bound to Thompson's Island, whether these officers have been ordered to repair, to investigate the cause of the existing fatal disease on that station. We understand that they will not remain at the Island more than a week, and then return to the United States. May their valuable lives be preserved to their country and families.

Naval.—The command of the U. S. ship Cyane, has been given to Capt. J. O. Creighton, of Providence, and is destined for the Mediterranean to relieve the Constitution, Capt. Jones. The U. S. schr. Weazle, has sailed from Washington for Thompson's Island, and thence on a cruise.

Latest from Spain.—The brig Catherine Rogers, in 30 days from Gibraltar, brings papers of that place of the 2d of September inclusive, from which it appears, that our doubts respecting the surrender of Corunna to the French, were well founded, notwithstanding the official bulletin, in the Paris papers, announcing that a convention was signed on the 14th of August. Corunna, as well as Cadiz, continued faithful to the Constitution down to the beginning of September. The French had made some attempts against Cadiz on the 25th August, but they were compelled to retire with considerable loss.—N. Y. Evening Post.

North American Review.—It is stated that Mr. Sparks, recently Pastor of the Unitarian Church in Baltimore, having retired from his pastoral charge, has purchased the establishment of the North American Review, and will in future be the Editor of that work.

A letter from an intelligent gentleman to his friend in this city, dated at Pensacola, Sept. 11, 1823, says, "Our town remains perfectly healthy." It is satisfactory to have it thus demonstrated that the disease of the last summer was the result, not of climate and locality, but of accidental circumstances.

Impurity of the air in vaults.—A vault was opened at Harlam a few days since, for the purpose of interring the body of the deceased child of a gentleman in this city. The coloured man who descended into the tomb with the coffin, after having placed it in its proper place, probably overcome by the noxious air, fell down and was lifeless before he was taken out.—N. Y. Com. Adver.

The Rev. Gabriel Richards, a Roman Catholic priest, has recently been elected a delegate to congress from the Michigan Territory.

From the American Farmer.

MARYLAND CATTLE SHOW AND FAIR, No. 4.

The Board of Trustees elected under the new organization of the Maryland Agricultural Society, held their first meeting at Hampton, Wednesday the 24th September, in pursuance of an invitation from General Ridgely, the President of the Board: and then and there proceeded to make arrangements for the next Cattle Show and Fair, to be held at the Maryland tavern, on Wednesday the 5th of November next.

FRUIT TREES.

The growth of weeds round fruit trees recently transplanted does them much injury, and diminishes their fruit in size and quality. Sonnini, in his Biblioth. Physico-conom., states, that to prevent this, the Germans spread on the ground round the fresh transplanted trees, as far as their roots extend, the refuse stalks of flax, after the fibrous part has been separated. This gives them surprising vigour. No weeds will grow under flax refuse, and the earth remains fresh and loose.—Old trees treated in the same manner, when drooping in an orchard, will recover, and push out vigorous shoots. In place of flax stalks, the leaves which fall from the trees in autumn may be substituted; but they must be covered with waste twigs, or any thing else that can prevent the wind from blowing them away.
